

🛏 3 🛎 3 📏 17424 sq. ft / 0.40 ac. 🏠 2100 sq. ft

The name: "Jacaranda" is a bright and beautiful fast-growing tree native to the tropical regions of South America that bears a myriad of colorful flowers. Villa Jacaranda embraces the name to showcase the villa's sheer beauty, location and gleaming brilliance. Situated on the hillside of Galleon Beach, a privately owned villa residence, offering unmatched views of the beautiful Galleon Beach and the historical Nelson's Dockyard in English Harbor, peace awaits you in this one-of-a-kind location and residence.

This unique villa, nestled in a boutique gated community, offers three bedrooms with each boasting their own exclusive en-suite bathroom. Each room can also accommodate a queen-sized bed with additional appointments for comfort.

The kitchen is open to the dining and living area and has been tastefully outfitted with stainless steel appliances presenting everything a cooking enthusiast may need to make a delectable meal. In addition, the kitchen also provides a convenient breakfast bar for informal dining.

The living area presents space to entertain while the real treat is enjoying the deck surrounding your exclusive swimming pool and taking in the serene views of Galleon Beach and its breathtaking sunsets. There is nothing like enjoying time on the deck by the pool, whether by yourself or with loved ones, while gazing at the captivating view of the sea while the cool breeze gently caresses your skin.

Outside your doorstep, Galleon Beach is merely a stone's throw away making morning sea baths a must. When your toes aren't in the sand there are a plethora of activities, restaurants and bars and attractions nearby to appreciate in the surrounding English and Falmouth Harbor area. Activities ranging from hiking the trails of the national park, making your very own rum at the Academy of Rum, enjoying a meal at the countless international restaurants in the area, paddle boarding on the calm shores of the harbor and much more.

Opportunities to enjoy a space like this don't avail themselves often. Villa Jacaranda - truly an unparalleled residence, one of the few available on the market and an experience to enjoy.

To schedule a viewing please contact info@paradisepropertiesconnections.com

