Purple Heart House offers a unique opportunity to own a spacious concrete villa located on the hills of Ffryes Estate, boasting breathtaking views from the mountains to the Caribbean Sea. Perched in a sought-after location, this property overlooks Dark Wood Beach and even offers a distant view of Montserrat's smoking volcano.

Positioned on the west side of the island, Purple Heart House is just minutes away from some of the most celebrated beaches in Antigua, including Dark Wood, Ffryes, Valley Church, and Turners. The convenience of Jolly Harbour, with its array of shops, restaurants, golf course, and gym, is a mere five-minute drive away. The island's capital, St. John's, can be reached in approximately 25 minutes, while the airport is just 35 minutes away.
