

🛏 2   🛋 2

St. Anne's Point Guest House sits on a hillside overlooking the turquoise waters of Falmouth Harbour on Antigua's south coast. The property offers sweeping views of the ocean and the bustling harbour, famous as the yachting capital of the Caribbean. Guests enjoy a unique vantage point where some of the world's most impressive sailing vessels and mega-yachts drop anchor.

The guest house combines historic character with modern comfort, creating a welcoming retreat for couples, families, or groups. Spacious terraces and deck areas provide the perfect setting to relax in the Caribbean breeze, dine outdoors, or simply admire the ever-changing harbour views.

