Wadadli Cottage offers a stylish and peaceful retreat just minutes from the lively community of English Harbour on Antigua's south coast. Completed in 2021, this 1,000-square-foot home combines modern design with the relaxed spirit of Caribbean living, making it an ideal base for couples, families, or friends seeking both comfort and convenience during their stay.

The cottage features two air-conditioned bedrooms that provide restful spaces after days spent exploring the island. A modern kitchen comes fully equipped for preparing meals, while laundry facilities add extra convenience for longer visits. The spacious living areas, both indoors and outdoors, create an inviting atmosphere for relaxing with a book, enjoying a shared meal, or simply taking in the cooling valley breezes.
