

🏠 2 🛏 2

Perched on Antigua's northeast coast, La Terrazza is a contemporary two-bedroom apartment that captures the essence of relaxed Caribbean living. Located on the first floor, it features a private wraparound terrace that connects every room and frames stunning sea views.

Both air-conditioned bedrooms include en-suite bathrooms and walk-in wardrobes. The bright living, kitchen, and dining area opens fully to the terrace through a wide three-panel sliding door, bringing the outdoors in. The modern kitchen is fitted with premium stainless steel appliances, perfect for effortless holiday cooking.

The west-facing terrace offers comfortable seating and uninterrupted views across the turquoise sea toward Nevis, an ideal spot for morning coffee or sunset watching. Guests also enjoy access to a small private beach and a covered parking space.

This remarkable estate boasts eye-catching views where the northernmost Caribbean Sea meets the Atlantic Ocean, among the few places in Antigua where guests can enjoy a sweeping 180° ocean view with visibility of both sunrise and sunset. Marine life such as turtles, dolphins, and stingrays can often be spotted from the property and a nearby reef, which is excellent for snorkeling.

The property welcomes intimate weddings, corporate functions, meetings, and special events. It is also equipped with superfast fiber internet and backup connectivity for remote work and corporate functions. For added convenience, a private chef familiar with the property is available upon request.

La Terrazza offers unmatched scenery and an elevated level of service. This estate is designed for those seeking an extraordinary experience in Antigua.

Shoulder Season Rates: April 11th to May 15th USD$480 per night OR USD$3,360 weekly.

